

19.85.030 Regulations and enforcement.

- A. An application for home business must be submitted to the planning and development services division of Salt Lake County for review, and must be accompanied by the application fee listed in Section 3.52.080. Upon finding that the applicant understands and agrees to comply with the standards set forth in Section 19.85.020, the application shall be approved.
- B. All home businesses are required to obtain a Salt Lake County business license. The business license must be renewed each year that the home business is in operation.
- C. Violations of the standards set forth in Section 19.85.020 shall be subject to the civil penalties outlined in Section 19.94.070. In addition, a business license revocation hearing may be scheduled at the discretion of the division director of planning and development services for any business found to be in violation of the home business standards or of any other county ordinance.
- D. The business owner is responsible for complying with all applicable health, fire, building and safety codes.
- E. All home businesses shall be reviewed for compliance with the provisions of this chapter and approved under the application process mentioned above. For the purposes of this chapter, a change of business ownership and/or relocation to a new address is considered a new business, and requires separate approval. (Ord. 1535 § 3 (part), 2004)
